

Design your own family crest

Lots of families have a special symbol that represents them.

What do you think would represent your family?

Draw a family crest on this shield. You could use things found in nature like animals and plants, or things from your home that are important to you and your family.

